"Sing 'Hey to you—
Good day to you—
And that's what I shall say."

The cost of Mr. Hoover's campaign to date is placed at $250,000. Spontaneous uprisings of the people come high but we must have 'em.

Walter Hagen wins the British open golf championship. It is hard to break the habits of a lifetime.

If Toro had happened to give a good sneeze at the wire he'd have won the Preakness.

Will H. Hays is back from Paris satisfied with the film agreement. France is lucky if she got out of it without making a campaign contribution to the G. O. P.

Baltimore strap-hangers face a ten-cent street car fare. What that town needs is a Jimmy Walker.

John Joy Edson lies at the point of death, victim of the saddest automobile tragedy of the year. One of Washington's foremost citizens since William W. Corcoran, the city can ill afford this shocking sacrifice. Who puts an automobile in the hands of a 16-year-old child?

Five members of the Mexican farm bloc are killed in a political debate on the agrarian question. They couldn't agree on the equalization fee.

It's getting so now that when the Nats cop one game in a row Clark Griffith calls it a winning streak.

First they permitted motorboats on the Lagoon and the canals and now they're going to build a bridge to Venice so the automobiles can bring the blessings of parking, traffic rules and shocking accidents to the backward city, where, as William Dean Howells has said, "the prose of earth has risen poetry from its baptism in the sea." Honk! honk! "On your right is the Doge's Palace!" Gosh! think of stop and go signals in the Piazza San Marco!

The average Frenchman has a vocabulary of 4,200 words and a pair of eloquent shoulders, giving him a total vocabulary of 8,763,952 words.

Senator Norbeck reveals opinion in South Dakota that Hoover could not carry that rock-ribbed Republican agricultural state against Smith. The truth of the matter is that Al is the only candidate in either party of whom it may be said with accuracy that there is a spontaneous demand for him everywhere by the common people of America.

Nevada instructs her delegates for him, and Senator Wheeler, third party candidate for Vice President in 1924, comes out for the greatest vote-getter this country has ever seen since Theodore Roosevelt. It is becoming increasingly apparent that the Republican party is going to lose the next election unless it nominates a man who can hold the farm vote without fear and concentrate his campaign in the Eastern States and big cities where the boy from the sidewalk of New York is certain to run like a prairie fire.

The interesting thing about the editorials in the New York Evening World urging the Governor to run on a wet platform is that they were probably written by the talented slogan-coiner who is going to sound the keynote at Houston. Maybe he'll give the platform committee a few ideas that Josephus Daniels hasn't thought of.

The Senate passes a bill providing a term in jail for anybody making cotton predictions, and we are certainly glad this doesn't include the campaign variety.

Every time we feel like bursting into a meeting we recall that President Coolidge hasn't vetoed the McNary-Haugen bill again—yet.

"Though Texas is a lordly State And loaded full of bis, It's not a millionth time as big As Texans think it is; But just the same, no one would care.

To make this truthful statement there."

As William J. Lampton would put it, Texas can be steam-rolled as easily as Rhode Island. There'll be two delegations at Kansas City and one will go back flat.

House committees reports a bill to deepen the Great Lakes at a cost of $27,000,000. If the Treasury surplus holds out we'll dredge the Grand Banks yet.

Young Mr. Ford is disclosed as the outstanding heavy sugar baby of the Hoover boom. How come, Edsel—not so long ago Pop was running for the Senate as a Democrat.

It is generally observed that, as a matter of fact, nearly all the Democrats with regard to Mr. Hoover are in the attitude of T. R. in 1912 when "Pop" was "praying for Clark." Maybe Edsel's a real Democrat.

JOHN JOY EDSON, 81, HIT BY AUTOMOBILE, HELD NEAR DEATH

Financier Knocked Down by Car Backing Into Parking Space.

16-YEAR-OLD DRIVER RELEASED BY POLICE

Surgeons Give Philanthropist Fighting Chance for Life; Skull Is Fractured.

John Joy Edson, financier and "grand old man" of local charity, is near death at the Emergency Hospital as the result of injuries received about 4:30 yesterday afternoon when he was hit by an automobile on F. between Ninth and Tenth streets northwest. The automobile was driven by Robert J. Guntheim, 16 years old, of 33 West Lenox street, Chevy Chase, Md.

Mr. Edson suffered a depressed fracture of the skull and two broken ribs.

Dr. James F. Mitchell, who assumed charge of the case last night, said that the nature of the skull fracture made an immediate operation impossible. He held out little hope for his patient's recovery.

The advanced age of the philanthropist, who will be 82 years old Thursday, was admitted to be one of the strongest forces working against his recovery.

Friends Besiege Hospital.

Word of the accident spread rapidly yesterday evening, and Emergency Hospital was besieged by scores of friends and associates anxious to render whatever aid possible to the octogenarian.

At an early hour this morning Mr. Edson was still in a semiconscious condition. No attempt was made by members of his family, or the attending physicians to speak to him, although he had moments of apparent lucidity.

The Guntheim youth was attempting to park his car at the F street curb when the accident occurred.

Mr. Edson was picked up by passers-by who assisted the driver in placing him in the car, which took him to Emergency Hospital. Mr. Edson was unconscious and an immediate X-ray examination was made by Dr. Ed Grass, resident physician, and Dr. George Smith of the hospital staff.

Police Release Driver.

Precinct Detective George R. Brown, who investigated the accident, ordered Guntheim, driver of the car, to the First Precinct station for questioning.

He was later released in the custody of his mother.

At the time of the accident young Guntheim was accompanied by Richard T. Walsh, 2 Newland street, Chevy

FIVE ARE SLAIN IN FEUD OVER MEXICAN POLITICS

El Paso, Tex., May 11 (A.P.)—Five men were killed and several wounded yesterday in a gun fight which terminated a feud between opposing political forces on the Agrarian controversy at Santiago Mihuanot, Pueblo, Mexico, advice to El Contingent state. Military forces intervened to restore order.

RIVAL TEXAS G. O. P. DELEGATIONS LIKELY

Creager Group Takes No Part in District Elections of Littleton Faction.

For Worth, Tex., May 10 (A.P.)—A contest between two rival Texas delegations for recognition at the Republican national convention was forecast today with the announcement by C. C. Littleton, chairman of the Republican State committee, that unselected delegates to the convention had been chosen in all thirteen congressional districts yesterday.

Followers of R. B. Creager, Republican national committeeman, did not participate in selection of the delegates, contending that the district conventions had been abolished by Texas Republicans.

At Republic county conventions recently delegates were chosen to a State convention, and Mr. Creager announced that the results assured election at the State meeting of a delegation favoring the nomination of Herbert Hoover for President. Texas will cast 28 votes at the national convention.

Mr. Creager's leadership of the party in Texas has been frequently challenged by Mr. Littleton and Henry M. Wurzbach, of San Antonio, the only Republican representative from the State

WILSON BALKS AT POLICE QUIZ, AFTER HE CALLS ON KEPHART

Declares He Would Rather Drop Mysterious Kidnapping Case Than Possibly Identify Wrong Man—Victims Compare Their Experiences.

Striving desperately to pierce the mystery surrounding the kidnapping of E. Percival Wilson, Washington banker, and the attack on Leonard W. Kephart, Department of Agriculture scientist, police yesterday brought the two men together. The meeting was held at Kephart's home, in Takoma Park, Md., and after it was over police declared that they were more mystified than before.

After both men had related their stories, Wilson left the room and police questioned him. He told them that he would not attempt to identify any one as his assailant unless he was absolutely certain, pointing out that he would rather drop the case than take a chance of identifying the wrong person. He asked police not to question him any further along this line, they said.

Wilson went to Kephart's home at the request of Montgomery County police. He told Kephart that Wednesday night, about 10 o'clock, a man placed a pistol against his back while he was locking his garage door. The man drove him to get in an automobile which was later identified as Kephart's.

The man drove to Chevy Chase Lake, where Wilson offered to give him all his

LONE SOS SIGNAL HALTS BROADCASTING

New York, May 11 (A.P.)—Radio broadcasting was halted at 10:45 o'clock tonight when a S O S signal was picked up by the Brooklyn Navy Yard and wireless operators of the Radio Marine Corporation.

The signal was given, only once and no call letters or location were picked up. Radio Marine Corporation officials said a Philadelphia operator also had heard the signal.

VICTORIAN ANNEXES PIMLICO PREAKNESS BY NOSE FROM TORO

40,000 at Turf Classic See Workman Outride Ambrose in Duel.

$60,000 PURSE WON IN THE LAST STRIDE

Solace Is Third to Finish; Nassak, Favorite, Never Factor in Race.

By CHARLES A. WATSON
(Staff Correspondent of The Post.)
Pimlico Race Track, May 11.—A heart-throbbing duel between horses and jockeys down the stretch in the Pimlico Preakness was climaxized in the final stride when the gallant Victorian, owned by Harry Payne Whitney and ridden by Jockey "Sonny" Workman, dropped his nose in front of the McLean Stable's Toro, ridden by Eddie Ambrose, to be crowned the winner of Maryland's classic horse race.

Forty thousand racers today saw the stout-hearted son of Whiskbroom II and Prudry capture the Preakness as the scariest of margins in a rousing finish, in which Workman proved the master jockey. Third to finish the grueling mile and sixteen route was Solace from the Seagram Stable, which was a length and a half behind the flying Toro, with Admiral Cary Grayson's Strolling Player a head farther back in fourth place.

The Whitney colt made all his own pace from the start and under Workman's magnificent handling converted every advantage. Fifty yards from the finish line, Toro, paid his bid, applied to have the race won when he passed Victorian, but Ambrose failed to get the best out of his mount and Victorian came again under Workman's whipping to snatch the $60,000 purse.

Washington Shares Glory.

Victorian, Toro and Solace were lightly regarded in the wagering with the winner being held at slightly more than 9 to 1 in the mutuels. Victorian paid $20.70 to win, $10.20 to place and $7.50 to show. Toro paid $22 to place and $14.20 to show. Solace paid $19.50 to show.

Barring a tremendous rush of some of the trailers, Washington could not lose as the two leaders rounded the turn into the home stretch. Riding the ultimate winner was Washington's most famous jockey, "Sonny" Workman, while the National Capitol also could share in the victory by a triumph of the Washington-owned Toro.

Bringing his flying mount to the judges' stand after the race, Workman paused near the rail and before saluting the judges, he raised his crop and the peak of his cap and saluted his mother, who was in the clubhouse nearby. It

NEVADA CONVENTION INSTRUCTS FOR SMITH

Reno, Nev., May 11 (A.P.)—By unanimous vote the Democratic State convention today endorsed the candidacy of Gov Alfred E. Smith of New York for the Democratic nomination for President. The Nevada delegation to the national convention was instructed to vote as a unit for the New York Governor as "long as he is a reasonable chance to nominate him."

Twelve delegates will represent the State at the Houston convention, each with a half vote. The unit rule will govern the activities of the delegation throughout.

It was so eulogistic of Mr. Hoover that Senator McMaster, of South Dakota, a Lowdenite member of the committee, winced at the first paragraph and challenged Mr. Good at the third.

"The campaign of Herbert Hoover is unique," it began. "In that it did not start with and has not been carried on by or through the customary headquarters or central management."

"Early in this campaign it became apparent that in most every part of the country there was a general recognition of Mr. Hoover's outstanding qualifications."

CHAMBER CHOOSES BUTTERWORTH HEAD; DEFREES CHAIRMAN

Policy Adopted in Committee Report Seeks for Many Changes in Taxes.

SUGGESTS LAWS TO PUT SHIPS IN PRIVATE HANDS

State Legislation on Flying Is Urged; Adjustment of Mail Rates Sought.

William Butterworth, of Moline, Ill., was elected president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States to succeed Lewis E. Pierson, of New York, yesterday at the close of the sixteenth annual meeting of the organization.

Joseph H. DeFrees, of Chicago, was elected chairman of the board of directors to succeed Judge Edwin B. Parker, who declined reelection because of the prospect that his services as arbiter under the chamber's arbitration rules and other duties would take all of his time.

The annual report of the resolutions committee of the chamber, which report is considered the annual announcement of the policy of the chamber, contained recommendations concerning commercial aviation, taxation, Federal legislation, the American merchant marine and other economic factors. A summary of the report is as follows:

Elimination of the tax on excise taxes on particular classes, reduction of the estate tax and a reduction of the corporation income tax to not more than 10 per cent.

Tax Change Sought.

Segregation and codification of the administrative provisions relative to internal revenue taxation and a general improvement in the administration of the income tax.

Enactment by all State legislatures of laws exempting interstate property of nonresident decedents from taxation in order to remove the problems of excessive delays and annoyances.

Enactment of Federal legislation defining classification for the placing of all essential services of the American merchant marine in responsible private hands on a basis to assure permanency of service and modernization and placement of vessels through private enterprise, and the establishment and maintenance of the shipping service needed in the interest of American commerce and national defense through small and cargo contracts.

Opposes Government Insurance.

The report of the committee also placed the chief emphasis as opposed to the entry of the Government into the marine insurance business, whether for the purpose of insuring the Government's equity in vessels sold to private parties or otherwise.

In order that industrial enterprise may in times of peace become familiar with munitions manufacture and be prepared to do its part in war production, the chamber recommended that the national defense act should be so amended as to permit the Secretary of War to place with industries orders of an educational character for equipment, munitions and accessories.

Collective buying of such raw materials as have come under the domina-

TWO DISTRICT BILLS LAID BEFORE SENATE

Capper Measure, Changing Payments of Antitax, Favorably Reported.

OTHER EXTENDS STREETS

The Senate District committee favorably reported two bills yesterday, the Capper bill requiring motorists to pay the personal taxes on their automobiles before applying for registration cards, and the Bruce bill authorizing the extension of Fourteenth street through the City of Rockville, also known as Rockville Center.

The Capper bill also changes the time for paying taxes. It provides that returns on all property, with the exception of automobiles, shall be paid in July when the assessment is levied, and that returns made in March shall stand in the following fiscal year.

On the motion of Senator Vandenberg (Republican), of Michigan, the committee eliminated a so-called "taxpayers section" from the bill, which had been recommended by the Bureau of Efficiency.

The assessors could examine the books and records of mercantile agencies suspected of failing to pay a fair tax.

Senators Vandenberg and Hartigan, authorizing the District authorities to call upon the District Supreme Court to compel owners to swear to the true value of their property would take care of the problem.

Senators Clegg (Republican), of Kansas, and Blaine (Republican), of Wisconsin, agreed with him.

At present the tax on automobiles is paid along with the tax on other personal property.

Senator P. Richards told the committee last week that approximately $70,000 in automobile taxes were lost to the District every year.

The bill to extend Fourteenth street, from the corner of Rockville Roads, was approved after its author, Senator Bruce (Democrat), of Maryland, had pointed out the need of such extension.

The measure has been pending for a number of years, but until now it has been strenuously opposed by the Walter Reed authorities.

Senator Blaine, who is chairman of the subcommittee on insurance, announced that he is ready to introduce a new insurance code for the District. It is probable that the committee will take up the measure some day next week.

Curiosity of Baby Results in Burns

Childish curiosity to see a gas lamp on the dining-room table of his home at close range may cost the life of Stevens, 14 months old, of 2817 Evans street northeast.

The child is in critical condition, suffering from burns.

According to police, the child was crawling around on the dining room floor when his curiosity was aroused by the lamp. Climbing on a chair he made his way to the lamp and began hitting the lamp closely when his clothes caught fire.

His screams attracted the attention of his mother, who beat out the flames and called for fire apparatus.

The child was burned on the face, body and arms.

Rockville Marriage License.

A marriage license was issued at Rockville yesterday to James A. Richeson, 26 years old, and Louise Harbaugh, 22 years old, both of Washington.

The young woman came to the sanitarium, where she was a senior student nurse, from the town of J. A. Richeson, who is a graduate of the Rockville school at the Washington Missionary College.

Richeson is president of the North Central division, Robert P. Lamont, of Chicago, president of the American Steel Foundry.

Vice president of the Western division, Paul Shoup, of San Francisco, vice president of the Southern Pacific Co.

Other Officers Elected.

Declaring that the harmful effects of the present postal rates schedules continue to be evident, the committee urged that immediate adjustment of postal rates be accomplished on a basis which will allow unhampered use of postal facilities, and that relief legislation to this end be enacted by the present Congress.

Other officers elected yesterday were as follows:

President of the Eastern division, Alfred J. Brosseau, New York, president of the Mack Trucks, Inc.

Vice president of the South Central division, John F. O'Meara, president of the Hessig-Elts Drug Co.

Vice president of the North Central division, Robert P. Lamont, of Chicago, president of the American Steel Foundry.

Vice president of the Western division, Paul Shoup, of San Francisco, vice president of the Southern Pacific Co.

Veterans' Hospital To Hold Reception

National hospital day will be observed today at the diagnostic center of the Veterans Hospital at 2650 Wisconsin avenue northwest.

The hospital will be open to the public from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. between 1 and 5 o'clock this afternoon. The Army Band will give a concert on the lawn, and tea will be served by the Red Cross.

Man Stricken in Car Dies.

Stricken in a vehicle riding on a Washington Railway & Electric Co. street car at Connecticut Avenue and M street northwest yesterday, T. F. Johnson, 55 years old, 2320 Twentieth street northeast, was taken to Emergency Hospital and died shortly after arriving there. Physicians said his death was due to natural causes.

Four Prisoner Patients

Flee From Gallering

Eluding the vigilance of a dozen nurses, four prisoner-patients at Galloping Horse Hospital calmly walked away from the institution last night. The fugitives, police were told, are May Loretta Mayett, 16 years old; Elizabeth M. Humphries, 18, both wards of the Board of Public Welfare; Norma Curran, colored, 18, and Christine Hart, colored, 14, wards of the Industrial Home School. They were undergoing treatment at the hospital.

Nurses at the hospital last night received word that the patients had fled, declaring that there was no one at the institution with authority to talk about it. All of the fugitives were attired in patient clothes.

Child Is Scalped After Parent's Blow

A blow of his father's hand knocked 2-year-old Agustino Conditi Jr. from the cradle in which he was sleeping, causing him to fall into a tub of scalding water in the conditi home at 108 D street northwest yesterday morning, according to police. The child is in Children's Hospital in a critical condition. Conditi is being held at the Sixteenth Precinct on a charge of assault.

Mrs. Elizabeth Conditi, wife of the child in arms when the father became involved in an argument with her. According to police, he struck his wife and when she staggered from the blow the child fell from her arms into the boiling water.

who held up Wilson escaped by jumping on the running board of an automobile going toward this city. Thus far police have been unable to locate the driver of that car.

A jar of make-up cream was found in Kephart's car. Police are trying to learn where this was sold. A mail sack that Kephart had in his automobile before it stopped and was assaulted was found near a window of Wilson's house.

Police Believe Stories.

Wilson has given police a good description of his assailant. Kephart can give only a vague description of a very large and powerful man. The man who attempted to abduct Wilson is 5 feet 11 inches tall.

Police were inclined last night to believe that Kephart was the victim of a pervert. Headquarters Detectives Frank Varney and Hubert Brodie said that they believed the stories told by Wilson and Kephart were absolutely accurate.

It was learned last night that a valuable volume of manuscript disappeared from Kephart's automobile on the night of the mysterious occurrences. This book, titled "East African Safari," was the scientist's account of his recent trip of exploration to Africa, and contained typewritten letters which he had written to fellow scientists here, detailing his discoveries. It was only roughly bound, but was regarded as highly valuable because of its scientific aspects.

The custody of a minor daughter was awarded to the paternal grandmother, Mrs. Sallie B. Holt. Attorneys Burkhardt and Quins appeared for Klein.

Nationalists' Plea to Geneva Likely to Settle Issue of Japan's Intervention.

Shanghai, May 11 (A.P.)—Mrs. William T. Hobart, of the American Methodist mission at Tainanfu near Tsinan, was killed on April 29 by a bullet fired through a small window in her bedroom, while she was sleeping during fighting between the Nationalists and the Communists.

Details of Mrs. Hobart's death were received at the legal headquarters of the mission today in a letter from Kialinfu written on May 3 by Miss Helen Stumley, a member of the mission.

Miss Stumley wrote:

"The killing occurred on April 29 after the Nationalists had begun fighting as was proceeding. We were warned that it was unsafe to leave the compound, but did not know we were being made targets. Mrs. Hobart left the little room where she had been residing and went to bed because she has a small window facing the City Hall. She was hit by a bullet through the window and died of her wounds. She was conscious ten minutes and died in one hour."

Party Then Lived in Basement.

"From that time on we lived in the basement of the mission buildings, being unable to leave the compound. It was not known what particular group of southern soldiers was doing the firing. This is the first opportunity to get our word. No one else was killed and all the Chinese students who were here have been in contact with the missionaries. The Tainanfu people knew nothing about Tsinan affairs and didn't even know that the southerners were near until the northers came."

The present situation of the missionaries in Tsinan is not known at the local headquarters, but it is not believed that they have been able to evacuate the city. All attempts to communicate with them from Shanghai have failed.

Other Methodists at Tainanfu are Dr. Hobart and the Misses Frances Meader and Alice Hobart. Dr. Hobart and the Misses Meader and Alice Hobart came from Evanston, Ill. They came to China in 1882. They have two daughters who are missionaries in China, but are now in the United States.

Children Live in Illinois.

Evanston, Ill., May 11 (A.P.)—Four children of Mrs. William T. Hobart, American missionary, killed in China, now are in Evanston, Ill. Two of them, Carl and the others, Louise, Robert and Elizabeth, are visiting Dr. Marcus H. and Chauncey C. Hobart, the other children of the slain mission worker.

Mrs. Hobart's daughter, the Rev. Dr. Mrs. Hobart, Mrs. Hatfield and an alumnus of Northwestern University. The Hatfields live here and in Chicago where the Rev. Mr. Hatfield, general Methodist Episcopal pastor, graduated from Northwestern in 1882. They have two daughters who are missionaries in China, but are now in the United States.

Direct Negotiations Seen.

Geneva, May 11 (A.P.)—Direct negotiations between China and Japan for an end to the Sino-Japanese conflict may result from the drastic protest received by the League of Nations today from the Nationalist government at Nanking, accusing Japan of ruthless and warlike violation of Chinese territory and independence. Chiang Kai-shek, who represents the Peking government in the league council, informed the Associated Press correspondent that he has every hope that such negotiations will be inaugurated as soon as possible. It is generally agreed that the role of the league secretary in the dispute is ended unless the Peking government or some other government, a league member, requests league investigation.

The very covenant itself prevents any functioning of the league's machinery for settlement of the Sino-Japanese conflict unless some government duly recognized as being a member brings the dispute to the attention of the league. The Chinese government is Chiang Tso-Ling's government at Peking, and not the Nationalists, which is regarded as the official spokesman of 400,000,000 Chinese.

Text Is Distributed.

Nevertheless, in view of the importance of the Southern movement, the league immediately gave unusual weight to the Nanking protest by distributing a statement to the attention of the council. In doing this, what is called the rule of reason was applied.

The governments represented in the council, which includes both China and Japan, must decide whether, in view of the strength of the Nationalist movement, Nanking has a de facto mandate to speak for China.

In league circles tonight the opinion is that the council will hesitate to accept the Nanking protest as an investigation of the conflict, since that would establish a precedent which revolutionary groups of considerably less importance in other countries immediately would follow.

The Japanese delegation awaits word from Tokyo before making a decision concerning its attitude.

WILKINS SAILING HOME ON SHIP FROM NORTH

Flies in Polar Plane to the Edge of Ice, and There Boards Sealer.

AERO TAKEN ON CRAFT

Green Harbor, Spitzbergen, May 11 (A.P.)—Capt. George H. Wilkins and Lieut Carl B. Eielson, who flew across the top of the world several weeks ago, took Spitzbergen today aboard the sealing ship "Hobart" bound for Tromsø, Norway. The departure of the two aviators from Green Harbor was a spectacular one, almost as much as their arrival in Spitzbergen from Fairbanks, Alaska. The aviators left Green Harbor itself just before midnight in the plane which had carried them across the polar regions.

The plane took off in the steam of the midnight sun and landed some distance on the ice border of Isfjord at Bjoerndalen. There the aviators boarded the sealer which was to take them to civilization. The plane also was taken aboard. It is expected that the Hobby will reach Tromsø Tuesday.

After a farewell festival at the Green Harbor Hotel yesterday evening, the fliers had a few hours sleep and then went out to the ice border to confer with the Hobby's captain regarding loading the airplane aboard the vessel.

The fliers had to walk across a 6-mile stretch of ice on snowshoes to reach the Hobby. They found that it would be impossible to land the airplane at Green Harbor and Capt. Wilkins therefore accompanied the Hobby along the ice border to find a favorable spot and at 11 o'clock Capt. Wilkins and Lieut. Eielson started with their plane from Green Harbor. They circled twice over the station while almost the entire crew, including the handcarriers in the summer night's sunlight until the machine disappeared.

The Hobby sailed this morning carrying also thirteen Italians from the Nobile polar expedition.

Dr. C. T. Wilson Predicts Defeat for Any "Wet"

Kansas City, May 11 (A.P.)—Defeat of any presidential candidate not known to be "dry" was predicted by Dr. Clarence T. Wilson, general secretary of the Anti-Saloon League, Prohibition and Public Morals of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in addressing a world-wide Methodist conference on prohibition held today.

Dr. Wilson declared that on way to keep the church out of politics in the United States this year would be for both major political parties to "nominate dry" who will carry out the prohibition program.

"Any party nominates a known nullificationist, or a wet, we shall consider it our Christian duty to defeat him," Dr. Wilson said. "We are not anxious to see us do it," he asserted.

Dr. Otto O. Mette, Methodist official in Germany, told the conference he had traveled in the United States for many months and had seen no evidence here of the liquor traffic lingering on. Reporting on progress of prohibition in Germany, he said, petitions calling for local option, including 2,565,000 signatures recently had been presented to the Reichstag.

Bishop John W. Robinson, of Delhi, India, said, "We are compelled to report our earlier hopes of a dry India have not been realized."

The jury failed to reach a verdict and the case is to be tried again.

"TALKING MOVIES" IN THE NEW FILM BILLS

Saturday's New Shadow Dramas

METROPOLITAN—Dolores Costello and Conrad Nagel, in "Tenderloin," with Vitaphone.

"Tenderloin," the underworld talking movie drama made by the Vitaphone method, in which dialogue is carried on by characters as the picture is shown on the screen, will be the feature for this week at Grandall's Metropolitan.

Dolores Costello is the featured player in "Tenderloin." This young star's admirers have seen her in many roles, some romantic, some rippling with comedy; others gay with youth and buoyancy, and still others dramatic. In "Tenderloin," she is frankly melodrama, she has a role in which she runs the gamut of emotions.

The story unfolded in "Tenderloin" concerns a coterie of high-class crooks. They are not pikers or cheap skates in the sense that they are after big stakes with the knowledge that if they are apprehended they will get long prison terms. Innocently and with open eyes the heroine falls into the clutches of this gang of scoundrels, among them a genuinely honest boy who is a master workman in safe blowing.

Among the well-known screen favorites who give life to the story are Conrad Nagel, who is cast opposite Miss Costello in her lead role, and Mitchell Lewis, Dan Wolpert, John Miljan, Pat Hartigan, and George Stone.

PALACE—Gilda Gray, in "The Devil Dancer."

Gilda Gray, in "The Devil Dancer," is the screen attraction at Rialto's Palace this week.

The picture was adapted from the scenario by Harry Harvey, authority on the Orient, and was directed by Fred Nibley. Clive Brook has the leading male role, and in support of Miss Gray are Lillian Kent, Tom O'Brien, Matilde Brundage, Vernon Benge, and Bert Kalitz. Charles Coleman and Art Currie.

Rox Rommell, conducting the Rialto Orchestra, plays a new arrangement of "Echoes" from the Metropolitan Opera.

International Newsreel and other short films are added.

Entered into an engagement with a daughter of a once wealthy family, who wants his money Jimmie Jameson agrees to become a "hired hand" and is engaged by a motorcycle cop. He lies to the officer, telling him that he is hurrying to the Children's Hospital, where his daughter is staying. Here a child, Pudge, has been brought that morning after running away from her foster mother. She thinks Jimmie is her father, whom she never saw. Jimmie, to carry out his plan, takes the little girl home and fathers her.

Meantime, Jimmie has fallen in love with the nurse, in whose charge he has placed his daughter. When the mother of Jimmie to Sybil van Tassel is about to take place, Pudge runs in and calls Jimmie "Daddy." The Van Tassels call off the marriage. Jimmie wedds the nurse, and the picture ends with a dramatic climax for all concerned.

The supporting cast includes Barbara Kent, Lillian Tom, O'Brien, Matilde Brundage, Vernon Benge, and Bert Kalitz. Charles Coleman and Art Currie.

Reginald Denny, conducting the Rialto Orchestra, plays a new arrangement of "Echoes" from the Metropolitan Opera.

International Newsreel and other short films are added.

EARLE—Bebe Daniels in "The Fifty-Fifty Girl."

"The Fifty-Fifty Girl" is the title of Bebe Daniels' latest starring vehicle for Paramount, which is this week's screen feature at the Earle Theater. The story-provoking situations are natural, and the new picture is a fitting companion piece to Miss Daniels' "Fee My Pulse."

The stage offering for this week is new Stanley Co. of America presentation of "Ninotchka," with Greta Garbo, Clark Gable, and the droll comedian who has been seen here many times at Keith's and the Earle Theaters, and the Harrington Sisters, in har- mony songs.

In "The Fifty-Fifty Girl," Miss Daniels plays the rôle of a stubborn girl who wants to know that women can live in every situation. A younger man who seriously disagrees with her, allows her to test her theories on him, and in the dark passages of old mining purposed by hundreds of young laborers, she finally meets her Waterloo and concedes his mastery.

In support of Miss Daniels are other stars of note: William Austin and many others of note.

A new Sennett comedy, "The Bicycle Flirt," starring Billy Bevan; a short scenic News events and musical accompaniment complete the bill.

COLUMBIA—Lon Chaney in "Laugh, Clown, Laugh."

Intimate glimpse of life behind the scenes of the celebrated stage play in which Lionel Atwill played the rôle of the "ugly duckling." It is played by Lon Chaney, the husky policeman in Reginald Dorey's new picture, "That's My Daddy," which is being shown at the Earle this week.

Incidentally, O'Brien is courageous in other ways, having received two decorations for valor in the World War. They are the French Croix de Guerre and the American Distinguished Service Cross.

Most of the questions concern my athletic endeavors between pictures, it is well known that, while a picture is actually in the making, a player must think of nothing else but the picture, the time, the setting period, the character to the one an athlete preparing for almost any line of sport.

"When I am not actually at work I do cut down exercises to a great extent with the belief that a good rest is very necessary. However, during the summer, when I am at the seashore, I spend most of my spare moments swimming in the surf.

Under the impression that light exercises take away muscle tone, I have given up all forms of exercise.

He played in stock companies in New York, Los Angeles, Jersey City, Denver and many other cities. His first screen role was in a picture called "Patent Smiles" about thirteen years ago. He was making a good living from motion-picture work, but no one had ever heard of him outside of Hollywood until "The Big Parade." He was an instant success and now is a regularly recognized featured player.

Other stage features will include an S. J. Watson creation, "The Silver Slave," as a new picture. The artists participating include Ross and Gilbert, Bertie and Norway and Robert Merton.

Stage artists intended to be a picture climax with Josef Turner, Lawrence Downey and the ballet corps, to a special arrangement of Victor Herbert's beloved melodies.

For the Earle's second week, Irene Rich with a stage interpretative setting, Mr. Stebbins is also announcing that the grand orchestra Leon Brusiloff, conducting, will render Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue," the international known pianist, as the solo artist. Here will be utilized Helen and Burt Hager, Flavio Theodore, and the Fox Ballet as supporting artists.

The Earle's third week, Irene Rich in what is reported to be one of the best "mother" roles of the modern type that this actress has yet portrayed in "The Silver Slave." Miss Rich, in an effort to save a daughter from a mad jazz age, steals that daughter's sweetheart. An excellent supporting cast is promised.

RIALTO—Reginald Denny in "That's My Daddy."

In "That's My Daddy," which is the feature at the Rialto this week, it is said that Reginald Denny registers one of his greatest starring successes. But another thing that is noted is that "That's My Daddy" is the picture of the cast of little Jane La Verne, a Denny discovery. It was an instant success when Jackie Coogan in "The Kid."

Briefly, the story is about Jimmy Norton, a young man of wealth, trap- pable in the "old fashioned" way.

STANLEY—Carl Laemmle presents "Reginald Denny in "That's My Daddy."

Reginald Denny, who has appeared in such films as "The Cheat Leader" and "College," has been added to the cast of Buster Keaton's new starring vehicle, "The Cameraman," which is now in production.

The most widely-known Chinese girl in the world, Anna May Wong, who supports Gilda Gray in "The Devil Dancer," now, at Earle's Palace, is an American citizen, by birthright. She was born in Los Angeles January 6, 1906, and received her education in the public schools there until the stage claimed her at the age of 15.

SOUTHERN LEADERS ARE PLANNING MOVE AGAINST WET PLANK

Drys Want Democratic Platform So Phrased They Can Support Smith.

PENNSYLVANIA G. O. P. HOLDS CAUCUS TODAY

Statement From Norbeck Says Hoover Can Not Carry Agricultural States.

By ALBERT W. FOX

A change of tactics, if not of policy, on the part of Democratic leaders in the solid South promises to eliminate the wet and dry issues from disturbing the campaign at the coming Houston convention. Alarmed over newspaper editorial suggestions that Governor Smith favor a wet plank in the Democratic platform, these Southern drys, including George D. Connor, former member of Woodrow Wilson's cabinet, have taken immediate steps to concentrate their fire against any such possibility.

The campaign of the Southern drys, in its new form, has been directed against Governor Smith and it may be that the dry leaders concede that Smith will in all probability be the party's nominee and that they want to be in a position to support him. No one can tell all the factors in the general assumption in the dry States of the South that there will be no wet or even moist plank in the Democratic platform.

Mr. Daniels has been in conference with Senator Walsh of Montana, Representative Cordell Hull, Senator Simmons and others and the views generally expressed harmonize with those advanced by Mr. Jessie L. Jones of Texas, Senator Pat Harrison of the dry State of Mississippi, and others who are expected to support the Democratic standard bearer without feeling that the dry cause is to be sacrificed as a consequence.

Holt Smith Would Enforce Law.

The amanuensis support which Gov. Smith has had in bone-dry States like Iowa, Oklahoma and Arkansas is based on the assumption that the governor is the type who would live up to his oath to execute the law as he sees fit. All other considerations being equal, the more important step so far in the progress of Hoover toward the nomination Kansas City.

Northwest Attacks Hoover.

Meanwhile further attacks from Republican senators identified with the agricultural interests were made yesterday against Senator Hoover's candidacy.

Sen. J. Norbeck (Republican) of South Dakota, again made public statements stressing the idea that Smith would defeat Hoover in the agricultural States. Norbeck made public the following statement:

"W. C. Lukas, president of the South Dakota Chamber of Commerce, who is also the publisher of the Press and Dakotan, and Dan W. Dryer,

K. W. Taylor, publisher of the Public Opinion at Watertown, S. D. (who is one of the delegates to the Kansas City convention), as follows:

"Statement made yesterday in New York and Washington that Hoover can carry South Dakota against Al Smith. This paper believes Al Smith, with his proven record that he is better enforcement under a man of Smith's proven record than he would be the case under indifferent or incapable enforcement in the hands of a professed dry."

Self-Interest, Alternative.

"Mr. Way replied as follows under date, May 9, 1928:

"There is no sentiment among our farmers for Hoover either as Republican nominee or as candidate for President. He is the type who would live up to his oath to execute the law as he sees fit. All other considerations being equal, the more important step so far in the progress of Hoover toward the nomination Kansas City.

Southern Drys Apprehensive.

But these suggestions have nevertheless caused some apprehension among drys of the solid South like Mississippi.

Daniels and others who apparently now feel that their efforts should continue against a move for a wet plank. There appears to be little doubt that a wet plank in the Democratic platform would bring the most serious consequences to Democratic harmony. No matter who the governor is, the national convention might be disrupted at the Houston convention if it is declared, but there would be a split in Democratic ranks during the critical weeks leading up to election day in November.

Gov. Smith has not discussed his reaction to the advocacy of a wet plank any more than he has been willing to comment publicly on the measure. It is understood that the governor's attitude on the prohibition question from a national standpoint has not changed since last September, when he voted with Daniels against this other question at Albany. The outline on the Post, on November 28, last was as follows:

Smith's Prohibition Stand.

"Gov. Smith's attitude on prohibition is easily defined. He regards this as a matter for the legislature and not the executive branch of the government. The former makes the laws and the latter has the sacred duty of enforcing such laws as are put upon the statute books. Not only does the governor believe that he would attempt to usurp powers but he is understood to believe that any such effort on his part would bring instant rebuke and defeat its own purpose.

"For example, Gov. Smith is understood to believe that President Coolidge could not, even if he tried, interfere with the laws which Congress deems with respect to prohibition."

All eyes in the Republican camp today are focused toward Pennsylvania where the State delegation will caucus under the leadership of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon. The干者 are hoping that the nomination of their candidate, which would mean the most important step so far in the progress of Hoover toward the nomination Kansas City.

Passage of the measure came after the House had rejected a vote of 145 to 1 in a move to amend the Senate Tyson-Fitzgerald bill to require three-quarters pay emergency officers.

It is understood that the committee's vote was a move to submit another bill which would provide for a permanent disability pension.

The bill will cost the Government an additional $2,394,265 annually and will benefit 3,261 disabled emergency officers.

Good List Grievances.

Under questioning by Senator Barkley of Kentucky, Mr. Good subsequently listed these statements in a most negative vein:

"That he is not an American citizen."

"That he is not a Republican."

"That he defrauded Chinamen."

"That he made millions out of the Bonus reversionary."

"That he fixed the price of wheat."

Senator Barkley observed of the second charge:

"Well, what you had to spend all of this money buying him up?" Repudiated Senator McMaster pounced on Mr. Good again when he reached the one about the price of wheat with the question:

"Well, what did Mr. Hoover do to prevent the price of wheat being fixed?"

Whereupon, Mr. Good, becoming indignant as well as eloquent, said:

"I am not a member of the Senate, I am a member of the House of Representatives."

Rep. Herbert H. Lehman (Democrat) of New York, chairman of the Committee on Agriculture, asked:

"What is your greatest ability?"

"I do not have to apologize for Mr. Hoover's ability; no one does," shouted Mr. Good.

After establishing that Mr. Good had been associated in practical business with C. E. Bacon, St. Paul, Minn., and with H. M. Blackmer, former chairman of the board of the Midwestern Refining Co., he was asked:

left. The gantlet on horseback was played at the Long Island Hunt Show last summer, and was such a success that the committee decided to make it one of the events at this show. The afternoon performance will begin at 2:30 o'clock, to consist of ten hunting scenes. Most of them will bring out their thoroughbreds for the hunt classes, and it is expected that there will be many good exhibitions of jumping. Another interesting feature will be the class in which veterans will ride on their puppies. The hunt teams, the last event on the program, will be a colorful one, for the entrants will wear their regulation hunting coats and caps.

IRREGULARITY FOLLOWS LIVELY FORWARD MOVE

FRIDAY, MAY 11, 1928.

Plane and Radio Shares Lead
Early an Advance in the Heavy Trading.

COPPERS AND OILS ACTIVE

Special to The Washington Post.

New York, May 11—Trading was irregular in today's active stock market but the general trend was upward. In the early advances gains were scored in almost every group, but backward irregularity, eventually losing much of the early gains and in some cases closing in the minus line.

Although it was the high grade investment leaders which first supplied the backbone of the market, the airplane stocks and radio were the skyrocketers. Curtiss was twirled up to a new high at 145%, but eased in the afternoon to settle at 142, a net gain of 8% points. Westinghouse bounded from a low for the day of 178 to 196, then dropped back sharply to 190, the final quotation a net gain of 13 points. Radio moved up smartly in the morning, buying interest a net advance of 7%, but lost most of its points under its recent record high.

The trading contingent was so pleased with the unbroken local rebounding rate that it failed to worry about the increase of more than $70,000,000 in the brokerage loan figures or about the sales of government securities by the reserve system. Call money was at 6% per cent all day, although money was obtainable at 5% per cent on the outside.

By and large it is probably safe to say that none of the developments in the market had much immediate impression on the average trader today. Apparently nothing had occurred to dampen the ardor of the average speculator and the only thing that put the brakes on the upward movement was the absence of a strong lead in the third Saturday closing tomorrow.

The day's turnover was slightly above the four million share mark with the ticket service running five to six thousand.

General Motors, Chrysler, General Electric, American Can, American Power & Light, Electric Power & Light, Congoleum Nairn and International Telephone and Telegraph companies consistently bought until the market when some of them lost a small part of their early gains. At the finish net advances in the group extended to about 7 points.

Some other groups contributed largely to the day's gains.

The rails suffered from some profit-taking near the close, but on the whole the group did very well, several of them touching new peaks for the year or breaking records. Wabash, Illinois Central and preferred, Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific, 6 per cent preferred New York, Chicago & St. Louis, Great Northern, preferred, Frisco and Atlantic Gas & Water Index.

Some of the coppers and oils were in high favor. Greene Canned advanced for a net gain of 4% points, Patino 3%, Richfield Oil 2%, Houston Oil 7% and Standard Oil 1%. Standard of New Jersey, 1. Pan-American Western, B 1% and Pan Producers & Refiners 2%.

Some of the mail saving shares, particularly those of Montgomery, were strong throughout the session. The latter touched a new high for all time at 154 and closed at 153%, a net advance of 9% points. Sears-Roebuck gained 3 points.

No oil for the year or more were attained by Chrysler, American Can, Bucyrus-Erie, common and convertible preferred, Armor Illinois A and B, American Power & Light, Vicks Chemical, Jewel, Gray Mining, Spicer, Cudahy Stock, 6% preferred, 10% of New Jersey 7% per cent preferred, Manhattan Shirt, General Gas & Electric, Tinfoil stamped, Relis & Co., 6% preferred, Howland, Brundage, Clark-Baile, Panhandle Products & Refining, preferred, Kroger Stores, Standard Gas & Electric preferred, National Dairy Products, International Paper, Park & Tilford, Pillsbury Flour, Standard and preferred, Mexican Seaboard, Old American, Lincoln preferred and others, including a number of stock banks.

WASHINGTON: SATURDAY, MAY 12, 1928.

VICTORIAN, WORKMAN UP, SCORES IN PREAKNESS; HAGEN WINS BRITISH OPEN; NATS BEAT TIGERS, 9-5

American Pro Takes Title 3d Time

Sarazen, With 292, Is 2 Strokes Behind; Compton Third.

Jurado and Mehlhorn Crack; Wales Pays Winner Tribute.

SANDWICH, England, May 11 (A.P.)—Walter Hagen today won his third British Open golf championship with a 72-hole score of 270, coming through with what the British call "a Hagen finish." The American golfer scored two 72s on his last two rounds, taking the lead in the morning and holding it to the end.

He was followed home by Gene Sarazen, another pro from the United States, who needed only 294 for his 72 holes. To complete the top three were, in the afternoon, Archie Compston, British leader, also finished with a pair of 73s for a total of 295 to take third place.

The other two Americans remaining in the competition to the bitter end also finished "in the money." Jim Barnes going into a tie for sixth and Bill Mehlhorn finishing ninth.

The French amateurs put the seal of royalty on Hagen's victory, as he handed him the famous trophy which was won by Bobby Jones last year and the before, and with Hagen's victory today, has gone to the hands of golfers from the United States in seven of the last eight years.

"I congratulate that fine sportsman, Walter Hagen," said the prince in presenting the cup.

Winning today as dramatically as he lost a special match to Archie Compston two weeks ago by the one-sided score of 18 up and 17 to play, Hagen effectively silenced stories that his defeat by the giant Compston marked the beginning of his decline as a player in important competitions.

Hagen's victory gives him the sensational record of three victories, one second and one third in the British classic since 1922, when he won for the first time over this same Royal St. George's course.

These strokes behind Jose Jurado, the Argentine, this morning Hagen went out steadily and confidently to play himself into the lead by a stroke at the end of the third round and a two-stroke lead with all to run for.

The bronzed, boyish, almost cherubic Sarazen was the last threat. Jurado, a featherweight with a lot of nerve, slipped from his leading position of the morning to a tie with "Long Jim" Mehlhorn.

Victorian broke clear and, possessing speed, was rated along under pressure, without being forced to do so. He was then held back by the others, but when he came up at the furlong pole, came again and under a rousing finish, was up in last stride.

Toro moved into contention with a smart effort on the inside rounding the turn, came to the front in the stretch and held off the others, but was not able to mount just as in the final stages. Solace shuffled back soon after the break and, far back early, closed a big gap and was racing strongly at the end.

MOTHER'S DAY PROGRAM INCLUDES SCHOOL VOICES

Elaborate Music and Address
Will Be Sent Out by WRC
Tonight.

BALLADEERS ARE NEXT

"Mother's Day" will be the subject of a fifteen-minute talk by Dr. Charles B. Campbell, of Calvary Methodist Church from WRC at 6:15 o'clock. The program is under the auspices of the Organized Bible Class Association.

This feature will be followed by the Western High School Male Quartet, under the direction of Dr. E. N. G. Barnes, through the courtesy of the First Baptist Church. Another short program will be heard when Miss Edna Belle Shaffer, contralto, accompanied by Catherine Benson, presents the Washington College of Music program, "Elegy," "Romance," "Pompeii and Circumstance," of British structure, and Mecham's "American Patrol," representative of American tunes, will be played by the United States Navy Band, directed by Charles Butler. During the program o'clock from WRC, Joe's "Roman Carnival" overture will be included in the program. It will be followed by Liszt's "Hungarian Rhapsody No. 2," "A Day Aboard a Mail Boat," a descriptive number, "Garden of Roses," waltz by Brooks, and "The Star Spangled Banner."

Steely Jamison, tenor, and Darl Bethman, baritone, members of the Keystone Duo, with the Balladeers, a string quartet, will be heard from WRC at 9 o'clock. Numbers by the duo will be "Grey Days," the opening selection; "Bells of St. Mary's," "Faraway Bells," and "Rain." "Les Vouls" and "Wonderful Land of Romance" will be sung by Mr. Jamison and "There's Something About a Rose" and "My Desire" by Mr. Bethman.

George Osborn, cellist, composer and concert conductor, will be the guest leader of the Mediterranean Dance Band at 8 o'clock.

Delbes' march from his ballet "Sylvia" will be played as the opening number during the hour of slumber music at 10 o'clock. Fred Thompson, Delbes is considered by some critics to be the foremost master of that ballet-pantomime form. Reissiger's "Mill on the Cliff," the second number on the program, is descriptive of music "Widor's Serenade," will follow. "The May Queen's" "Ballet of Flowers," Cady's "Dance Oriental," "Romance," by Sibelius; Chapi's "Morish Serenade" and Liszt's "Concerto" will close the selection.

WRC will also broadcast a number of dance music from the Wardman Park Hotel orchestra from 11 to 12 o'clock tonight.

With summer time coming, a list of favorite picnic and camp cooking recipes will be given by Mrs. Charles S. Deneen, wife of the senator from Illinois, in a talk at 10 o'clock this morning through WRC. Mrs. Deneen will read both domestic and foreign recipes, all of which can be made in the average American kitchen without undue trouble. She will also read some of her own favorite salad recipes.

The Second Regiment Band of McLean Technical High School, presented, will be presented from WMAL at 8:30 o'clock tonight. This band is under the leadership of Capt. H. E. Meyers.

Summer Ice Fishing Minnesota Prospect

Minneapolis, May 11 (AP)—The unprecedented experience of fishing through the ice in summer is a possibility for anglers in far northern Minnesota this year. The season opens May 15.

A long and bitter winter, followed by a cold spring that produced 18 inches of snow in mid-April, left some of the lakes ice-locked for weeks longer than usual.

The ice layers were so thick in a few instances that automobiles and teams were still crossing lakes and streams late in April.

Rust Loss Great.

London, (AP)—Loss of property to the value of 30 billion dollars through the action of rust occurs every year throughout the world, according to an estimate made by Louis Asquith. He asked the Old World leaders' association to concentrate upon the invention of some preservative to protect metals.

A Little Saturday Talk

RIDDLES AND FUN.

I HAVE been surprised to learn how widespread is the interest in riddles. School pupils tell me that riddles are a puzzle even in school. Many teachers let their classes ask riddles on Friday afternoons.

Marie Weber sent me this riddle: "I am a child as white as milk, lined with skin as soft as silk, within a fountain crystal clear, a golden apple does appear. No doors there are to this stronghold, yet tikeves break in to eat the gold."

Can you guess what that is? It's an egg!

Another reader asks for a copy of my riddle leaflet saying: "No one in my neighborhood has one yet."

Several riddles were printed in a previous Saturday Talk, and Ruth Wolf wrote:

"I tried very hard to guess the best answer for them, but after an hour's trying I have decided to send for a leaflet."

Here are a few riddles from the second riddle leaflet: 1. When a storm like a new-born babe? 2. When is a clock on the stairway in danger of being broken? 3. Why is "b" like fire?

Think a little before you look at the next paragraph.

The answers are: 1. When it begins
